

Free Technician Course

Want to get your Technician License? The links below provided good free study material. They are written by Dan Romanchik, KB6NU. Dan lives in Ann Arbor and has successfully taught many license classes. His study for the Technician License is free as a downloaded pdf file or you can purchase a printed copy.

The you tube link is his one day Technician class streamed on you tube and follows the study guide. It is an excellent way to get started.
